Mesa United Way is now looking for community volunteers to serve in our Community Allocation Program (CAP). By participating in one of four panels, our CAP volunteers evaluate agencies' requests for funding to respond to community needs, listen to agency presentations, and ask questions to gather pertinent information. As a volunteer you share your thoughts, and by the use of volunteer evaluations, provide input to the Mesa United Way Board of Directors about the allocation of Mesa Unites Funds. As a panel participant, you will:

- Assure that donor contributions are spent wisely
- Work on a team reviewing nonprofit agencies
- Ask in-depth questions about the organization
- Determine the agencies' impact on the community
- Make recommendations for funding
